Request for information 2023-093

I refer to your request for information dated 20 April 2023, which was received by Greater Wellington Regional Council (Greater Wellington) on 20 April 2023. You have requested the following:

1. “Does your organisation hold a music license for its various offices and buildings?”
2. Does your organisation require multiple music licenses for different buildings?
3. How much does your organisation pay for each of its music licenses?
4. Who provides your music license(s)?
5. Why do you have the licenses? Is music played in general staff areas, to staff at their desks, in staff training sessions, at conferences or to callers on hold?”

Greater Wellington’s response follows

1. Does your organisation hold a music license for its various offices and buildings?

Greater Wellington does not hold a music license as it does not play music in its buildings.

2. Does your organisation require multiple music licenses for different buildings?

Not Applicable.

3. How much does your organisation pay for each of its music licenses?

Not Applicable.

4. Who provides your music license(s)?

Not Applicable.

5. Why do you have the licenses? Is music played in general staff areas, to staff at their desks, in staff training sessions, at conferences or to callers on hold?

Not Applicable.

If you have any concerns with the decision(s) referred to in this letter, you have the right to request an investigation and review by the Ombudsman under section 27(3) of the Act.

Please note that it is our policy to proactively release our responses to official information requests where possible. Our response to your request will be published shortly on Greater Wellington's website with your personal information removed.
