What this statement covers

Greater Wellington Regional Council (Greater Wellington) has created this privacy statement to explain how we deal with your personal information which is collected through Te Whatu Ora Workplace Travel survey.

What personal information do we collect and for what purposes?

Greater Wellington is collecting your workplace, work type, home suburb, travel information and comments from you directly in the survey questionnaire. We may collect your email address if you choose to enter the related competition.

The purposes for collecting this information are to understand how and where you travel to work; how you utilise travel facilities; your travel options; and any barriers you have to using active travel modes or public transport, with reference to your workplace, occupational type and home suburb.

The personal information is analysed and presented in a report to Wellington Regional Hospital Travel Action Plan (WRHTAP) stakeholders as anonymised and aggregated results.

These results enable us to understand and monitor trends in travel for the Te Whatu Ora Capital, Coast & Hutt Valley workforce. These results are used to inform workplace travel planning and travel initiatives.

Participating in the Te Whatu Ora Workplace Travel survey is voluntary.
